

CHRISTIE'S

THE SUNDAY SALE – PROPERTY REMOVED FROM MALMESBURY HOUSE, THE CLOSE, SALISBURY

London – 18 February 2007

[All sold prices include buyer's premium]

Sold:   £325,884           $636,451           €483,938           Sale No: 5272

Lots Sold: 208   Lots Offered: 208           Sold by Lot: 100%           Sold by £: 100%

£: $1.953           £: €1.485

| Lot                                                                                                                                 | Price          | Estimate |         |                | Buyer   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|----------|---------|----------------|---------|
| 101                                                                                                                                 | £20,400 | $39,841 | €30,294 | £4,000-6,000   | Trade   |
| A pair of Chinese blue and white slender baluster vases, Kangxi (1662-1722)                                                         |                |          |         |                |         |
| 216                                                                                                                                 | £18,000 | $35,154 | €26,730 | £15,000-25,000 | Private |
| A pair of Italian Empire carved giltwood armchairs, attributed to Lorenzo, Santi (d. 1839), First quarter, 19 th century |                |          |         |                |         |
| 217                                                                                                                                 | £16,800 | $32,810 | €24,948 | £15,000-25,000 | Private |
| A pair of Italian Empire carved giltwood armchairs, attributed to Lorenzo, Santi (d. 1839), First quarter, 19 th century |                |          |         |                |         |

“This outstanding result is a magnificent tribute to the taste of the collector and the quality of the fine furnishing of Malmesbury House, The Close, Salisbury, which was 100% sold by value and lot. Strong prices were seen across the board, from furniture, Old Master pictures and silver. We are very pleased with the results for the suite of Italian giltwood seat furniture commissioned by Cardinal Fesch, Napoleon I's uncle, which realised an impressive £44,760,” said Andrew McVinish, Head of Sunday Sales.

Press Contact:   Christina Freyberg           020 7752 3120   cfreyberg@christies.com