Melissa Bennie, Head of 19th Century Ceramics and Glass and Casey Rogers, Specialist of 19th Century Furniture, Sculpture and Works of Art said: "Today's sale saw bidding from a predominantly private pool of collectors from around the world and we welcomed a number of new clients to the category. The top lots exemplify the continuing demand for provenance and rarity. We are particularly pleased to have witnessed spirited bidding for lots of exceptional quality and condition, resulting in impressive prices for the ormolu-mounted tulipwood and marquetry grand piano, the German ormolu-and Meissen porcelain-mounted cabinet, and European ivory works of art. Impressive results were also achieved for a Berlin (K.P.M.) plaque of 'La Martyre Chrétienne', an exotic pair of massive ormolu-mounted Sarreguemines sang-de-boeuf ground vases, and a large Mintons majolica 'stork' fountain basin. We look forward to our next sale, 500 Years: Decorative Arts Europe, on November 24."
