Ms. Rosamund Kwan remarked, "I'm thrilled to collaborate with Christie's to share my passion for jewellery and offer a part of my collection to jewellery enthusiasts worldwide. These pieces are a perfect representation of my preferred style: vintage and simple, but also elegant, timeless, and very easy to match and wear. Each piece carries significance to my collecting journey and personal life, and evokes some fond memories. I sincerely hope they will find new homes through this auction, and look forward to seeing the sale proceeds go toward doing more good in the world."

Vickie Sek, Chairman, Department of Jewellery, Christie's Asia Pacific, commented, *"Building upon our heritage and success in offering the most prominent private collections at auction, such as The Collection of Elizabeth Taylor (New York, 2011), Maharajas & Mughal Magnificence (New York, 2019), and Twelve Jewels by JAR from The Estate of Ann Getty (New York, 2022), we are very honoured and delighted for the opportunity to present Rosamund's collection to collectors around the world. Rosamund is not only esteemed and recognised for her achievements in the film industry, but also for her discerning eye for the very best fine jewellery.
