Hong Kong – On 25 November, Christie's Hong Kong held two live wine and spirits auctions – "Iconic Wines from Joseph Lau Part II" and "Finest and Rarest Wines & Spirits", realising a combined sale total of HK$89,097,500 / US$11,470,715. Across both sales, the spirited saleroom saw participation from 14 countries spanning 4 continents, with 36% of lots sold online through Christie's Live™. With the conclusion of Part II of the sale series, "Iconic Wines from Joseph Lau" totalled over HK$125 million / US$16 million overall. "An Immaculate European Connoisseur's Collection Part II" and "The Cellar of a Meticulous Wine Lover" continues to welcome bidding online until 6 December.

Michelle Chan, Head of Wine, Christie's Asia Pacific commented, "Our market leading track record of offering the most prestigious single-owner collections continued with the second part of 'Iconic Wines From Joseph Lau', which achieved outstanding results in the saleroom today, with over 22% of lots surpassing HK$1 million, and numerous lots exceeding their pre-sale low estimates, some up to seven times over. With an overall total of over HK$125 million, the results today – together with Part I earlier in April – are a testament to the impeccable quality of the bottles Joseph Lau so brilliantly amassed. As the festive season approaches, time is ripe to acquire exceptional bottles in our two online auctions of single owner collections."
