COMMENT: Ruoh-Ling Keong, Vice President and Head of Christie's Southeast Asian Pictures Department, said: "This fall's auction affirms Christie's leading position in the arena of Modern and Contemporary Southeast Asian Art. International bidders congregated in a packed room to compete enthusiastically for a fine collection of works of art from the region.

The morning began with a well selected and exciting collection of contemporary works which proved to be universally appealing, attracting bidders from outside the Southeast Asian region.

Once again, impeccable provenance and the quality of the artworks remain most attractive to collectors. The single owner collection of works by Lee Man Fong was 100% sold, and the Private Collection of Joseph Borkin achieved astonishing results. The sale was made complete by the world record price for a painting by S. Sudjojono of HK$3,704,000, surpassing our previous world record price for the same artist that was set at auction in May 2006."
