Comment: Georgiana Aitken, Head of Antiquities, Christie's London commented:

"We are delighted with the overall success of the Spring sale, which bears testament to the strength of demand for antiquities. Objects from private collections achieved particularly strong results - The Groppi collection was 99% sold, exceeding pre-sale expectations to achieve over £1.8 million, and Property from the Hubertus Wald Charitable Foundation and the Estate of Renate Wald achieved a total of £759,962. We look forward to the June sale in New York."
