Starting today, shoppers can log on to Christies.com to browse and bid in two new online-only auctions running from now to December 4.

For the art-lover in your life, Christie's presents the Online-Only sale of Multiples by Matisse from the Matisse Family Collections. The selection comprises 96 lots that represent a fascinating cross-section of the artist's graphic oeuvre, including drypoints and etchings from his early career through to large-scale lithographs and aquatints from his later years. All of the works are sourced directly from the artist's family – an impeccable provenance. New collectors as well as established connoisseurs will find a range of techniques, styles and subjects, as well as a wide range of starting estimates, from $1,000 up to $50,000. This collection's approachable pricing along with the added convenience of online browsing and bidding makes this an ideal sale for those interested in starting their own art collection or looking for the perfect holiday gift.

The auction of Part I of the cellar on November 16 totaled $918,000, with nearly every bottle sold. This second and final installment features many more rare treasures, including a 2-bottle lot of 1945 Château Haut-Brion, 6 bottles of 1999 Perrier-Jouet La Fleur, and a magnum of cult favorite 2000 Sassicaia. Trotter's legendary, five-star wine cellar.

Digital Innovation at Christie's

As a 246-year old company, Christie's has proven itself adept at embracing innovation while preserving its core business model. In July 2006, Christie's was the first international auction house to give clients worldwide access to bidding in its saleroom over the Internet, via Christie's LIVE™; by 2007 the system was available across all Christie's salerooms worldwide. Since then, Christie's has continued to invest in digital assets, leading to the redesign of Christies.com in April 2008, the launch of Christie's iPhone and iPad apps in 2009 and 2010, and the introduction of our first online-only auction in 2011.
