Virgilio Garza, Head of Latin American department, said: "The energetic, selective market for Latin American art was highlighted by modern masters such as Botero, Tamayo, Zúñiga, Iberê Carmargo, and achieved new world auction records for contemporary artists like Olga de Amaral and Oscar Muñoz. Both collectors in the saleroom and online were excited by the spectacular price realized for the rediscovered Portrait of Linda Christian by Diego Rivera. We look forward to the Day Sale, which includes a wide array of works ranging from the 18th to the 21st century."
