Charles Antin, Wine Specialist and Auctioneer for the sale, commented: "We welcomed clients from all over the world into our saleroom today, with bidders from Russia, Brazil, Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong and all over the U.S. competing for the rare wines on offer. As is fitting for a pre-summer sale, Grand Cru white burgundies performed well, as did California cult wines from Harlan, Opus One, and Dominus. Fine burgundies by Henri Jayer continued to outperform their estimates just as they have all season, with multiple bidders competing for each of today's offerings. We now look forward to our Hong Kong sale of Fine & Rare Wines tomorrow which will complete our marathon weekend of wine sales around the globe."
