Mr. David Elswood, International Head of Wine for Christie's, said: "This marathon 7 hour, 705 lot sale saw strong demand for rare Burgundies and older Bordeaux, but selective bidding for many younger First Growths as the market adjusts to new price levels."

Mr. Charles Curtis MW, Head of Wine for Christie's Asia, added, "These results demonstrate the continuing diversification of Hong Kong cellars, as clients focused on rarity, quality, and provenance. The emphasis is on great wines from great vintages across the globe. Vertical collections sold very well, as demonstrated by the $1.21 million achieved by our La Tâche vertical. Seven of the top ten lots were verticals of this nature."
