Jane Turner, Head of Department and Sarah Reynolds, Specialist:

"We are pleased with the results of the Maritime Art sale. The auction saw strong international bidding especially for unique pictures of historical subjects that were fresh to the market, such as the Montague Dawsons, lots 26 and 35, and the Francis Holman of an action between an East Indiaman and an American privateer, lot 31. The modern marine pictures performed particularly strongly, and we were thrilled to achieve a new world record price at auction for Jamie Medlin, cementing his position as one of Britain's finest living marine artists."
