Hong Kong – On Saturday, 6 September, Fine And Rare Wines Including The Collection Of Hubert Guerrand-Hermès at Christie's Hong Kong totalled HK$19,897,752/ US$2,580,738, and was sold 99% by lot and 96% by value.

“Christie's Hong Kong first Wine auction of the Fall season on 6th September demonstrates robust prices and a high percentage sold. Competitive bidding was seen for Hubert Guerrand-Hermès's collection, which was 100% sold by lot and showed collectors' appreciation for strong provenance and exemplary wine. The continued interest in the Bordeaux Châteaux and Burgundy Domaines selection also confirmed their blue-chip positions amongst vineyards. Offerings from the Pessac-Léognan appellation, which included unsung heroes from the Burgundy region were also well-received,” said Simon Tam, Head of Christie's China Wine Department who also was the auctioneer of the sale.
