THE PADDINGTON TRAIL

CHRISTIE'S

PRESS RELEASE | London
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 28 November 2014

YOUR CHANCE TO OWN A PIECE OF THE PADDINGTON TRAIL

Kate Moss, Goldie Bear
Starting Bid: £500

London - Christie's is honoured to announce the online Paddington sale to raise vital funds for the NSPCC and its ChildLine service, helping to ensure that children and young people have someone to turn to in times of need in the same way as Mr and Mrs Brown were there for Paddington. The dedicated sale, open for bidding from 10 December 2014 to 7 January 2015, will present a selection of 36 Paddington statues, each uniquely designed by a host of famous faces including Kate Moss, Matthew Williamson, Guy Ritchie and Darcey Bussell. The bears are currently on display across London as part of The Paddington Trail in association with the NSPCC, VisitLondon.com and STUDIOCANAL to celebrate the film's release, marking some of London's key cultural landmarks including The Royal Opera House, The Museum of London, Horse Guards Parade and Paddington Station. Bids start from £500, to register your interest please visit <http://www.christies.com/paddington>.

About the NSPCC

The NSPCC is the only UK wide charity solely focused on preventing cruelty to children. The charity works directly with vulnerable children in 40 locations across the UK providing therapy, support and advice to them and their families. The NSPCC helpline provides a 24 hour phone number for adults to report child abuse or seek advice. The charity also runs ChildLine which takes hundreds of thousands contacts a year from children and young people and visits primary schools throughout the country. The NSPCC also successfully campaigns for laws and policies to protect children and bring abusers to justice.
