Pippa Jacomb, Associate Director and Head of Day Sale: Further to the success of the Evening Sale which achieved £8,868,100, the Day Sale exceeded expectations, bringing the combined total for Modern British and Irish Art sold at Christie's London this week to £11,930,350. We are very pleased with the result for Dame Elisabeth Frink's 'Dog I', which sparked fiercely competitive bidding, reaching far beyond its pre-sale estimate. Notable results were also secured for Alan Davie and several works by William Scott."
