Leonie Grainger and Christian Albu, Co-Heads of the Post-War and Contemporary Art Day Sale “Building on the success of this week's Post-War & Contemporary Evening auction, we are pleased with the Day Sale results of 17.2 million, the second highest results ever achieved for a day sale in the category, which continue to demonstrate the strength of the post-war and contemporary art market as shown by the strong sell through rates achieved. We are particularly pleased with David Hockney's 'With Conversation', which fetched £1,650,500, attracting competitive bidding from international collectors. The Day sale also realised record prices for works by Jo Baer and Maurizio Nannucci and for 'Betty', by Gerhard Richter, which achieved a world record price for a photograph by the artist at £314,500.”
