Keith Gill, Head of Sale, Picasso Ceramics commented: "We are very pleased with the results of the 'Picasso Ceramics' sale which was sold 96% by lot and totaled £1,550,688 demonstrating the timeless appeal and enduring demand for unique and editioned ceramics by Pablo Picasso. This auction follows the recent success of the online sale 'Impressions in Clay: Pablo Picasso Ceramics,' the June 2013 'Picasso Ceramics' sale and the landmark 'Madoura' sale in 2012, all of which far exceeded their pre-sale estimates. Bidders from across the globe competed fiercely for the top lots with both new and established collectors bidding in the room, on the telephone and via Christie's Live. Rare editions were in high demand and the top lot of the sale was one of the rarest editioned ceramics, the large terracotta plaque 'Grande tête de femme au chapeau orné' which realised £74,500. We look forward to the online sale of Picasso Ceramics in October 2014."
