

CHRISTIE'S

September – October Online Auction Calendar 2017

Christie's Picks

ON PAPER | ONLINE

7 September - 19 September

Working on paper has allowed artists to record fleeting thought, explore the idiosyncrasies of technique, or to create fully realised, worked surfaces. Whether it be drawing or painting, print-making or photography, the paper sheet has been the support of choice for artists throughout the late twentieth century. on paper | online aims to highlight the role of this versatile and ubiquitous medium in the history Post-War and Contemporary Art.

THE COLLECTION OF PAUL F. WALTER

21 September - 28 September

The Collection of Paul F. Walter is the online auction of the collection running alongside the live sales. Paul Walter was known as a polymath and scholar, and through collecting and patronage – including leadership roles at MoMA and the Metropolitan Museum of Art among others – he became one of New York's most respected connoisseurs. The lots span across a multitude of disciplines including Post-War & Contemporary art, photographs, prints, sculpture, English furniture and decorative art, and Indian Art – the items come from Walter's Manhattan apartment and his Sag Harbor home.

AUDREY HEPBURN: PART II

19 September - 3 October

Audrey Hepburn Part II comprises scripts & correspondence, photographs, film memorabilia, fashion and accessories, the online sale presents collectors and devoted fans from around the world with further opportunities to acquire personal items and mementos from throughout Audrey Hepburn's life, both on and off screen. Fashion spanning informal day wear through to evening cocktail gowns features items by Valentino, Givenchy, Yves Saint Laurent and Burberry.

CHRISTIE'S

MOMA: HENRI CARTIER-BRESSON

5 October - 11 October

Christie's is proud to offer a series of dedicated and thematic online auctions from the MoMA, kicking-off with a sale of works by Henri Cartier-Bresson. Proceeds from this auction will benefit the acquisition fund for the Museum's Department of Photography.
